

Master Gardener of the Year 2010

Ed LaCrosse was named Washington State Master Gardener of the Year at the Master Gardener Advanced Education Conference held in Vancouver, Washington on September 23rd-25th, 2010.

Ed is a gifted leader with integrity, commitment, and a legendary knowledge of native plants. Ed leads a community-based coalition at the historic Neely-Soames Homestead Garden, one of the King County Master Gardener demonstration gardens. He is Chair of the Native Plant department of the annual King County Master Gardener Plant Sale and is a native plant steward for the Native Plant Society.

WE CONGRATULATE ED ON THIS WELL DESERVED HONOR!
